

A Message from Eversource on Saving Money on Your Electric Bill: Since most people are working, studying and sheltering at home, many of us may be seeing a surge in home energy usage, resulting in higher electric bills. At Eversource, we are committed to providing customers with energy efficiency solutions that can help lower bills while adopting environmentally-friendly, energy-savings habits.

See the enclosed link and please share this information with your communities on ways to save energy while spending more time at home:
