The Board of Selectmen may make a preliminary investigation of the validity of the complaint including interviews or discussions with the complainant, town personnel or members of the public. At any time after the receipt of a complaint, the Board of Selectmen may dismiss the complaint after finding there is no justification for the complaint; such notice of dismissal shall be given, in writing, to the complainant and the accused party. (d) A Violation of any provisions of this ethics code should raise questions for the public official or municipal employee involved as to whether voluntary resignation or other action is appropriate to promote the best interests of the town. Sanctions for violations shall include, but not be limited to, suspension, censure, dismissal of an employee, removal of an appointed official by the appointing authority and public recommendation to an elected official that he or she resign from office. Notification of such disposition shall be given orally immediately to the person about whom the complaint has been filed and in writing by certified mail, to said person within thirty (20) days after the Board of Selectmen approves such sanctions.
